

AiA Classic™

An Employee Engagement
Strategy for Today,
Tomorrow, and Beyond

AiA Classic™ Preview Session

DLEG—Adult Education and Training Conference, Grand Traverse Resort
Thursday, May 8, 2008 8:30-9:45am

Room Location: Governor's F

Presenter: Brenn Fricano, Director of Business & Industry, Orchard View Community Education

AiA Classic™, formerly Adventures in Attitudes, is a proven personal and professional development process experienced by more than 5 million people worldwide.

Each of the 74 projects throughout the complete 30-hr program* leads the groups through exercises that cause the participants to focus on important questions, such as:

- How do I handle people problems at home and at my job?
- How do I solve my problems? Make decisions?
- What is my work and what are my attitudes toward work? Do they need to be changed? How?

Get a glimpse of what participants will experience by participating in a hands-on 75-minute preview at the Adult Education and Training Conference on May 8, 2008 at the Grand Traverse Resort, Acme, MI

Presented by:
Orchard View Community Education
Brenn Fricano,
Director of Business & Industry
Email: brenn.fricano@orchardview.org

*The 30-hour AiA Classic™ is an engaging, comprehensive professional development opportunity that qualifies for 3 CEU credits! Come to the Preview and see what it's all about!