Michigan Jobs & Career Portal: Frequently Asked Questions (FAQs)

A Michigan Jobs & Career Portal service.

Where can I get help in finding a job?

Go to the "Job Seeker" section of the Michigan Jobs & Career Portal web site for more information on how to guide you through your job search. You can post your resume on web sites like the Michigan Talent Bank; search for jobs on Simplyhired.com and apply directly with employers; and network with professionals and other key contacts on Indeed.com. Under "Job Seeker Tool Kit" you can learn how to write a resume and interview for a job. To locate the service center nearest to you and to get a complete description of the employment services offered, click on "Michigan Works!" under "Quick Links." You can also call 1-800-285-9675.

Where can I get free job training?

You may qualify for free job training through your local Michigan Works! Service Center if you meet eligibility requirements. For the location of your nearest service center, go to the "Job Seeker" section of the Michigan Jobs & Career Portal and click on the Michigan Works link under "Quick Links". You may also call 1-800-285-9675.

Where can I get information on apprenticeships?

Go to the home page of the Michigan Jobs & Career Portal and click on "Education and Training", then "Apprenticeships". You will find links to information on eligibility and requirements, benefits, and how to find a program.
