

Mitch Tomlinson, CEO
Peckham, Inc.

Mitchell Tomlinson has been with Peckham, Inc. since 1976 and has been the CEO since 1994. Mitch has his Master's Degree in Rehabilitation Counseling from the University of Wisconsin-Stout.

Some of Mitch's accomplishments during his tenure as CEO include creating new partnerships with Michigan State University, participating in a Harvard Business Review case study of best practices in non-profits, and overseeing a growth of over 1000% in revenues. Mitch has been awarded the Management Excellence award from the National Council of Work Centers, the Award of Excellence from the Michigan Rehabilitation Conference and named Business Man of the year by the Southside Business Association. Mitch is the Vice Chair of the state's new Council on Labor and Economic Growth and is on the Rehabilitation Counseling Program Advisory Committee at MSU. He also serves as board member and past president of the 501 Alliance and is a member of Capital Area Transportation Authority (CATA) local advisory committee.

Mitch and his wife Jeanne, have 3 children, 2 now in college and one yet in high school.