

Save the Date!

23 August 2010

University of Michigan-Flint

Veterans' Summit

Benefits Workshop and Seminars, Panels, and Information to Help Veterans Succeed in the Business World

Co-Sponsored by:

The Michigan Center for Entrepreneurial Leadership
University of Michigan-Flint School of Management
VetBizCentral

UNIVERSITY OF MICHIGAN-FLINT

SCHOOL OF MANAGEMENT

Veterans' Summit

23 August 2010 @ 0900

Benefits Workshop

A panel discussion of veteran benefits featuring:

Enrolling in VA health care and vocational rehabilitation, Saginaw VA GI Bill - Education Benefits, UM-Flint State Certified Service Officer Veterans' Employment Services

Seminars:

Personal Finance

How to establish good or better credit and other considerations in securing your financial future.

Essentials of Business Law, Accounting and Taxation

How and where do you start your business? How should it be structured? What are the basic accounting requirements, procedures? What are the important tax considerations?

Funding Your Business

Where can I get funds to start and operate my business? Learn about SBA Veteran loan programs, angel investors, venture capitalists, and what banks seek in a good funding candidate.

Business Strategy

Focusing Your Ideas

Learn to how to focus your business ideas before writing your business plan.

Information: www.vetbizcentral.org

Register: www.vetbizsales.org