

Mother's Milk: It's All a Baby Needs!

Health organizations worldwide recommend that for the first six months infants be exclusively breastfed, needing no other food besides mother's milk.

Congratulations to:

In recognition of your contributions to the health of mothers and babies through ongoing support of breastfeeding in our community.

Signature

Date

This institution is an equal opportunity provider.