Taking Action to Improve Student
Health and Academic Performance

Grand Traverse Resort, Acme, MI

Schools can improve the health and academic performance of their students by using coordinated school health teams to focus on improving the school environment and policies related to healthy eating and physical activity. This conference series provides a unique opportunity to help create these healthy school environments. With the great success of the past three conferences in this series, the 2008 conference has been expanded to one and one-half days, followed by a half-day of intensive training sessions.

- Tuesday, April 22: 12:45 p.m. opening session, followed by workshops
- Wednesday, April 23: A full day of conference sessions
- Thursday, April 24: Special half-day trainings will be offered on:
  - Michiana
  - HSAT Overview and Facilitation Training
  - Asthma Issues
  - Safe Routes 2 School
  - Physical Educator Training
  - School Based/Linked Health Centers
  - School Meals

REGISTRATION MATERIALS WILL BE AVAILABLE IN LATE FALL 2007 AT
