Our 2009 Fall Conference will contain two morning tracks and an afternoon session where we can all join together and learn how professionals and families can work together to best meet the needs of our students.

Morning Track I: An Introductory workshop for general education teachers and parents containing information about the basics of hearing loss, strategies and techniques for effective communication, ensuring an appropriate learning environment, and promoting social integration and emotional well-being in the classroom and home environment.

Morning Track II: An advanced workshop intended for educators of the Deaf and Hard of Hearing and support staff covering the topic of Interpreting Academic Testing for Students who are Deaf or Hard of Hearing.

Afternoon Session: We're All in This Together! We will all join together to discuss working as a team between the home, general education and special education classrooms as we discuss ways we can all best meet the needs of our students and maximize their success.
