

Michigan Algorithm for Pulse Oximetry Screening

Protocol for all newborns without cardiovascular or respiratory distress (asymptomatic). Screening should take place before discharge as close to 24 hours of life as possible, at or after 35 weeks gestation.

 NICU screening should occur when medically appropriate- See MDCH recommended NICU screening algorithm

