Hearing Screen Process for Out of Hospital Births

Educate parents on the importance of Newborn Hearing Screening Before birth: and give parents the Newborn Hearing Screening Brochure. Write who the baby's primary care doctor is on the "Provider" line on After birth: the newborn metabolic blood screen card. Document parent's choice Provide Screening on hearing card Document screening results on OR On "Other" line, write screening card. site or referring midwife. Fill in: the bubble for A-ABR, test Mark parent refusal bubble. date, and results for each ear. Screen Conducted Parents arrange for hearing Passed both ears Referred in one or both ears Passed both ears Rescreen in TWO weeks and report results Referred Set up a Diagnostic Appointment Twice in Monitor for speech and with a Pediatric Audiologist for a full one or language development hearing assessment immediately. both ears milestones. Auditory Brainstem Response Review high-risk factors (ABR) including all of the following: with parents and do a - Click full diagnostic - Tone Burst evaluation by 3 years of - Bone Conduction

Otoacoustic Emissions (OAE)Tympanograms (1,000 Hz)

age; if present.

Michigan Early Hearing Detection and Intervention Program www.michigan.gov/ehdi