Have what it takes to lead the Michigan Department of Civil Rights? *Applications for MDCR Executive Director must be received by Friday, June 7

Lansing-The Michigan Civil Rights Commission (MCRC) is seeking candidates for the position of Executive Director of the Michigan Department of Civil Rights (MDCR). The last day to apply for the position is Friday, June 7, 2013.

Candidates can review the official position description, salary and benefits information, and apply through the State of Michigan's NEOGOV system at <http://agency.governmentjobs.com/michigan/default.cfm>. For a detailed description of desired credentials and experience, click here.

"The Commission is seeking a dynamic leader with experience to enforce Michigan civil rights law as required by our Constitution, develop learning initiatives to prevent discrimination in every form, engage all civil rights partners and develop civil rights champions to build a more just, equitable and inclusive future for all Michigan citizens," said MCRC Chair Mike Zelle.

The MDCR Executive Director will be responsible for implementing public policy set forth by the Michigan Civil Rights Commission, including providing executive leadership for MDCR and its employees. MDCR is responsible for civil rights complaint investigations as well as outreach efforts and educational programs to promote voluntary compliance with civil rights laws.
