

Root Beer Summit on Racial and Ethnic Diversity November 17, 2009 - Save the Date

Join the Michigan Department of Civil Rights and local partners at this unique learning event. In cities across Michigan, we will engage in a series of discussions aimed at building common understanding about racial, ethnic and other forms of diversity.

Join in the discussion as we raise glasses of Michigan's favorite, Faygo Root Beer.

Please add your voice. Prepare to listen, and to learn from others in your community at this free event.
