2. SBE Priorities, Policies, and Programs that this Grant Supports:

Special Education Preschool Grants serve the purpose of providing programs and services to children as young as two and a half through five years of age. Chronically underperforming schools typically have a significant population of special education students. Special education programs and services provided to children age two and a half through five have a considerable impact on future performance and success. Such programs are often the first opportunity to provide an inclusive learning environment that benefits all children. These programs utilize the principles of universal education with appropriate resources and support each child.
