Fall 2009
Official Released Items
The Grade 6 Functional Independence Accessing Print Assessment was administered for the first time in Fall 2005. Beginning with this administration, the Office of Educational Assessment and Accountability (OEAA) will annually release a portion of the items that are administered on the assessment. This booklet contains released items from the Fall 2009 administration and is intended to be used by districts to assist in their interpretation of item analysis data. The information contained in this booklet may also be used by schools, teachers, and parents as a resource for understanding the content and format of the assessment items. In addition to MI-Access training materials and Extended Grade Level Content Expectations (EGLCE), the released items may also have utility in informing decisions related to instruction, curriculum, and assessment. These items are not secure and may be copied and distributed as needed.

The table below lists the number of core and released items administered on the Fall 2009 Grade 6 assessment booklet. Core items are those that count toward students’ scores. All released items in this booklet were selected from the pool of core items that appeared on the assessment.

PART 2
ACCESSING PRINT - TEXT COMPREHENSION

DIRECTIONS: Read the passage. Then, answer the questions that follow. Choose the BEST answer for each question.
Amy and Kelly were best friends. Since they went to different schools, they only saw each other on Saturdays. Every Friday evening, Amy and Kelly talked on the phone. They planned what they would do together the next day.

When Amy called Kelly this Friday, Kelly wasn’t home. Amy thought it was strange, but she didn’t think much of it.

When Amy called her friend the next morning, Kelly’s mother answered the telephone.

“I’m sorry, Amy, but Kelly is not home yet,” said Kelly’s mother. “She spent the night at Kim’s house last night. She should be back later this afternoon.”

Amy felt her eyes fill with tears. She wondered if Kelly did not want to be her friend anymore. Amy didn’t know what to think, and she felt crushed.

“Amy, what’s the matter?” asked Amy’s father.

“Oh, Dad. I feel terrible,” Amy replied. “I don’t think Kelly wants to be my friend anymore. She’s spending time with another friend today instead of me.”

“Amy, I know you and Kelly are best friends, but it’s okay to have other friends, too,” Amy’s father said.

“I guess you’re right. I do have other friends at school. But Kelly is my best friend, and I don’t ever want that to change,” replied Amy.

“I’m sure Kelly feels the same way,” her father said.

Later that day, Kelly called Amy.

“Amy, I’m sorry I forgot to tell you I was staying the night at Kim’s house. I hope I didn’t hurt your feelings,” said Kelly.

“Well, I did get a little worried that maybe you had a new best friend,” Amy confessed.

“No way, Amy! You’ll always be my best friend,” said Kelly.
“And so will you,” Amy replied. “Do you want to go roller skating this afternoon?”

“That sounds like fun,” said Kelly.

“You can invite Kim, too. I’d like to meet her,” Amy said.

“That’s a great idea! I’ll see you later,” said Kelly.

Amy hung up the phone. She felt much better.

Below is a list of the Extended Grade Level Content Expectations (EGLCE) for each released item found in this booklet. The chart contains the EGLCE code, a brief description of what is measured, and the correct answer for each released item.

Because the assessment was administered during the fall of the school year, only content from the previous grade level was measured on the assessment. For example, items eligible for the Grade 6 assessment will measure Grade 5 EGLCE.

Full descriptions of the EGLCE contained in the chart below are available for review and download at www.mi.gov/mi-access.
