SUBJECT: 2016 Curriculum and Technology Leaders Collaborative Summit

The 2016 Curriculum and Technology Leaders Collaborative Summit will be Friday, August 12, 2016 from 9:00 a.m. to 3:00 p.m. at Oakland Schools. The special event is being offered to Michigan's curriculum and technology leaders through a joint effort of educational organizations. This Summit will help us realize how Michigan can and will become a Top 10 educational state in 10 years through our collaborative efforts, challenging and reshaping our existing structures and systems to give everyone an opportunity to succeed. To learn more about the Top 10 in 10, see <http://www.michigan.gov/top10in10>. The focus of the summit is Goal 2 of the Top 10 in 10.

The mission is to create opportunities to inform, explore, model, and apply collaborative opportunities/actions among curriculum and technology leaders to create efficiencies and enhance student outcomes. Goals are:

- To have both curriculum and technology leaders within a district attend sessions to jointly explore best practice, processes, and policies to support student learning;
- To provide sessions focused on processes, policies, and systems that utilize diverse structures for collaboration and learning; and
- To provide examples from around the state.
