

This is a report card created by the Michigan Department of Education (MDE). Report cards are made for each company that tutored students during the 2010-2011 school year, in the program named Supplemental Education Services (SES).

The purpose of report cards is to give parents information to help them choose an SES tutor for their children in the coming school year. SES is a free tutoring program.

How City Camp Explains Their Tutoring Program, in Their Own Words:

The MDE has not edited this description.

City Camp provides High Quality research based tutoring programs designed to increase students' performance in Language Arts, Math, Science, and Social Studies. Using information provided by report card, parents, and test scores, City Camp will develop individual learning objectives for students based on his/her individual needs. Together the McGraw-Hill Direct Instructions Curriculum, Camelot Learning Math Intervention Curriculum, and quality trained staff work to provide the tools needed for students achieve Proficiency Ratings on the MEAP exam and reach Grade Level Content Expectations. Students receive individual attention with no more than 5 students assigned to one tutor. Students receive instruction twice a week for 120 minutes for up a total of 32 hours. Students receive a nutritional snack at every session. All tutors have a love for children; receive ongoing training and a minimum high school diploma.
