Who should attend?

- K-12 classroom teachers
- Administrators
- Special Education teachers
- Community Service organizations

Why attend?

- Service learning/ literacy increases student engagement and academic achievement
- Service learning makes academic material relevant
- Service learning is a form of experiential education which studies have shown is effective
- Service learning teaches civic responsibility via real world applications

*Service Learning is key to bringing learning to life, and this two-day exploration will give every participant the tools they need to integrate this unique teaching methodology into their everyday instruction. And who better to learn from than international expert, Cathryn Berger Kaye, M.A., author of The Complete Guide to Service Learning. Every session is a unique blend of information and small group interaction, demonstrating how this knowledge can improve teaching and learning in any classroom, any subject, anywhere.*

Benefit from the "recipe" for successful integration. Every attendee will return to their school with an individual service learning plan, customized to work at their school, as well as the knowledge of how to lead a Service Learning workshop and the ability to coach their peers on the fundamentals of this teaching methodology.

*Each participant will receive The Complete Guide to Service Learning, the companion workbook and two grade level specific children's trade books to accompany service learning plans (over $50 value).*

Cathryn Berger Kaye, M.A.,

president of CBK Associates, is a former classroom teacher and International Service Learning Consultant. She is known for her highly engaging workshops and keynote addresses that both inspire and promote student engagement.

She works with state departments of education, university faculty and students, school districts, and classroom teachers both in the United States and abroad on a variety of education issues such as service learning, civic responsibility, social and emotional development, improving teaching methods, student leadership, literacy, and respectful, safe school communities.

She is the author of The Complete Guide to Service Learning: Proven, Practical Ways to Engage Students in Civic Responsibility, Academic Curriculum, & Social Action and a new interactive workbook series, Free Spirit's Service Learning for Kids: How to Take Action. Her new curriculum, "Strategies for Success with Literacy: A Learning Curriculum that Serves," is an innovative research-based approach to addressing literacy, social-emotional development, and civic engagement.

Cathryn lives in Los Angeles and can be reached at cbkaye@aol.com.
