

FREDERICA FROST, PhD MBA

35611 Six Mile Road, Livonia, MI 48152

Telephone: Office 734.334.1574 Home 734.464.1973 Cell 248.722.8717

Email: frostf@resa.net

OBJECTIVE

To assist schools and districts in maximizing student learning through development of effective teaching and learning strategies, professional development, and data/evaluation systems.

36 YEARS EXPERIENCE AS AN EDUCATOR:

- Classroom teacher, grades 4 through 8
- Gifted and Talented Consultant, California State Department of Education
- Gifted and Talented Consultant, St. Clair County RESA
- Interim Director of Bilingual Education, Farmington Public Schools
- Reading Recovery Site Liaison, Farmington Public Schools
- Adjunct professor: California State University at Los Angeles, Eastern Michigan University, Saginaw Valley University, Oakland University
- Author of numerous articles on a variety of subjects in education, including a monograph on changing student attitudes through media

EXPERIENCE IN TITLE 1:

- Title 1 and MAS/FPS Coordinator, Wayne RESA
- Director of Special Projects (Title 1), Farmington Public Schools
- Co-Chair School Improvement Committee, Farmington Public Schools

EXPERIENCE IN USE OF DATA AND EVALUATION:

- Director, Center for Evaluation Research, Wayne RESA
- Assessment Consultant, Wayne RESA
- Director of Research, Farmington Public Schools
- Director of Research and Data Systems, Garvey School District, Rosemead, California
- Evaluator on Project Making Math Matter, recognized in 2008 by the US Department of Education as one of two programs nationwide as an example of “professional development that works”
- Evaluator on Special Education Literacy Connections Training, recognized in 2009 for Educational Excellence by the Michigan Association of School Boards
- Author of numerous articles in measurement and evaluation, including a paper presentation at the 2009 American Educational Research Association Conference.