

This is a report card created by the Michigan Department of Education (MDE). Report cards are made for each company that tutored students during the 2010-2011 school year, in the program named Supplemental Education Services (SES).

The purpose of report cards is to give parents information to help them choose an SES tutor for their children in the coming school year. SES is a free tutoring program.

How Hope4Learning Explains Their Tutoring Program, in Their Own Words:

The MDE has not edited this description.

Hope4Learning is designed to meet the academic needs of all students with a specific focus on the Michigan Common Core Curriculum Standards which include the knowledge necessary to be successful at each grade level, by actively engaging students in "hands-on activities, research, discovery and learning in order to close achievement gaps, and ensure academic success. Hope4Learning's goal is take students from where they are, to where they need to be.
