MEMORANDUM

DATE: November 24, 2015
TO: State Board of Education
FROM: Brian J. Whiston, Chairman
SUBJECT: Presentation on One Student's Story: Access, Personalization, and Engagement in Learning

The Eaton Regional Education Service Agency (RESA) general education, special education, and instructional technology staff worked together with Grand Ledge Public Schools to meet the needs of a very special student, Lilly. Their team will provide an overview of how their collaborative efforts resulted in a transformation for Lilly, and the amazing outcomes she has achieved since. The team's solution for Lilly was featured at the 2015 International Society for Technology in Education National Conference, and provides a model for educators working together on behalf of every student.

The team of educators presenting will include the Eaton RESA General Education Director, Rhonda Provoast, and Assistive Technology Consultant, Robin Pegg. Other staff plus Lilly and her family will be in the audience.
