

M.A.D.E. Training & Consulting, Inc. (Making A Difference Everyday)

This is a report card created by the Michigan Department of Education (MDE). Report cards are made for each company that tutored students during the 2010-2011 school year, in the program named Supplemental Education Services (SES).

The purpose of report cards is to give parents information to help them choose an SES tutor for their children in the coming school year. SES is a free tutoring program.

How M.A.D.E. Training & Consulting, Inc. (Making A Difference Everyday) Explains Their Tutoring Program, in Their Own Words:

The MDE has not edited this description.

M.A.D.E. (Making A Difference Everyday) provides an individualized educational experience based on McMillan/McGraw-Hill's standards-based curriculum. This program helps students to develop a foundation for the following: reading, math, science and social studies. Developed by experienced educators, Macmillan/McGraw-Hill's programs are based on scientifically based research and best practices. The Macmillan/McGraw-Hill's Triumphs and Building Math Skills Series have been adopted by hundreds of districts nationwide. Both general education and special education students who used these series showed significant gains in both reading and mathematics scores as measured by the Michigan Educational Assessment Program (MEAP). M.A.D.E. provides Supplemental Educational Sessions in after school settings primarily in the public schools the students attend. Typically group sessions will be held in (2) hour sessions, two (2) days per week. Students will receive an average of 30 hours of instruction. The instructional approach consists of specially tailored, small group tutoring delivered
