

This is a report card created by the Michigan Department of Education (MDE). Report cards are made for each company that tutored students during the 2010-2011 school year, in the program named Supplemental Education Services (SES).

The purpose of report cards is to give parents information to help them choose an SES tutor for their children in the coming school year. SES is a free tutoring program.

How McCall Ed Services Online Explains Their Tutoring Program, in Their Own Words:

The MDE has not edited this description.

McCall Ed Services is dedicated to improving student achievement through the use of research based instructional strategies. The research validated reading and math programs have demonstrated success of student achievement in both areas. McCall Ed Services provides both small to medium group instruction and individual instruction to students after diagnostic testing and the development of individualized learning plans. Sessions are available after school, weekends, and summer, they may be delivered on site after school, in home, off site, or online for a minimum of 32 hours. Students will meet for an average of two hours per session two to three days per week. Online learning services are available for the distant learner. Students are exposed to varied technology (graphing calculators and computers) to support their academic success. McCall Ed Services incorporates ongoing communication between, parent, school and tutor to ensure student achieves academic success. There is no charge to the parent or student for tutorial services provided.
