

This is a report card created by the Michigan Department of Education (MDE). Report cards are made for each company that tutored students during the 2010-2011 school year, in the program named Supplemental Education Services (SES).

The purpose of report cards is to give parents information to help them choose an SES tutor for their children in the coming school year. SES is a free tutoring program.

How REACHING FOR THE STARS Explains Their Tutoring Program, in Their Own Words:

The MDE has not edited this description.

REACHING FOR THE STARS is an after-school tutoring program that is focused on achievement. We only higher highly-qualified teacher that have open minds for teaching and learning. Although our tutors are teachers, we train our tutors before they begin any instruction, in order to reinforce our teaching strategies. Our program will tutor students 5 days per week and 2-3 hours per session. Our tutoring program mainly takes place on-line. Our students will have access to the computer and its program at the tutoring site as well as at home. Therefore, students can continue to learn when they leave our location. Also, we have one-on-one tutoring available as well as small group tutoring sessions. All of these methods of tutoring insures that your student will be successful.
