

Michlib-L

A mailing list by, for and about Michigan libraries.

What is Michlib-L?

Michlib-L is an email-based discussion list by, for and about Michigan libraries. Michlib-L was one of the first statewide library discussion lists.

Who can join?

Anyone with an interest in Michigan libraries may join. Librarians and library support staff are especially encouraged to join.

What kind of information is posted?

Michigan libraries job postings, important information about the Michigan eLibrary and other statewide initiatives, policy questions, help with problems, name that poem or book, offers of old runs of journals, discussion about the state of libraries, library furniture for sale – everything library-related except advertising by commercial vendors. Michlib-L is where many official notices from the Library of Michigan and other statewide library groups are made.

What types of libraries are represented on Michlib-L?

All types of libraries participate: academic, public, school, special and government.

Who can post?

Only members of the list may post. All other submissions go to the list moderator for approval.
