

Teaching and Learning with Michigan eLibrary (MeL) and School Resources from ProQuest®

Engage, excite, and enlighten 21st-century learners with these online research resources.

- CultureGrams™ one-of-a-kind country reports
- eLibrary® multimedia-rich general reference content
- eLibrary® Elementary tailored for the young reader and researcher
- HeritageQuest® Online family history primary sources and e-books
- SIRS Discoverer® award-winning general reference resource for researchers in grades 1-9
- SIRS® Renaissance for arts and humanities teachers and students

Aligned with teaching standards. Supporting differentiated instruction. Available 24x7. No cost to Michigan residents.

Find the databases on the MeL website:
<http://mel.org/>

Brought to you by:

Michigan eLibrary (MeL) is a project of the Library of Michigan. MeL is made possible with federal grant funds from the Institute of Museum and Library Services (IMLS), with additional funding from the State of Michigan.