This workshop is designed for you, the teachers of ELL students in grades K through 8 who are dedicated to helping your students think, plan and then write meaningful essays. Blueprint for Exceptional Writing (BEW) provides a Master Plan to help you build successful writers and to help your ELL students produce proficient writing selections. You will learn how to break down writing strategies into manageable steps or lesson components that directly correlate with SIOP, which are taught with best practice strategies, using jingles, hand or arm motions and a number of specialized graphic organizers to be used as teaching aids. BEW strategies involve language enrichment techniques, multisensory experiences, visual tools and the use of teaching specific genres and text structures. Join us for this two-day writing workshop and receive all the material necessary for teaching writing the BEW way!
