

Tim Becker

Chief Deputy Director Michigan Department of Health and Human Services

Tim Becker is chief deputy director for the Michigan Department of Health and Human Services.

Becker previously served as chief deputy director for the Michigan Department of Community Health (MDCH) and as the senior deputy director for Operations Administration, where he was responsible for the MDCH's budget, finance, auditing and purchasing.

During his tenure at MDCH, the state implemented several successful transformation initiatives, including the Healthy Michigan Plan, which has provided health insurance coverage to nearly 600,000 Michigan residents.

Becker has 21 years of professional experience in finance and administration in both the private and public sectors, including 18 years with the State of Michigan. He is past president of the Fowler Public Schools Board of Education, where he was elected to three terms.
