

Richard Kline

Deputy Director, Aging and Adult Services Michigan Department of Health and Human Services

Richard Kline is deputy director of Aging and Adult Services for the Michigan Department of Health and Human Services.

Kline oversees an agency that provides statewide leadership, direction and resources to support Michigan's aging, adult services and disability networks. He joined MDHHS in February after serving as executive director of All Seasons of Rochester Hills, a senior living community.

His career has included serving as an adjunct instructor at Grand Valley and Ferris State universities, healthcare administrator for HRC Manor Care in Grand Rapids, and executive director of the Chelsea Retirement Community and Covenant Retirement Communities in Grand Rapids, where he also was healthcare administrator.

Contact Information:

Carol A. Dye
(517) 284-0146
DyeC1@michigan.gov

