When Will MPAS Represent Me?

Mission and Guiding Principles

The mission of Michigan Protection & Advocacy Service, Inc. (MPAS) is to advocate and protect the legal rights of people with disabilities.

We work to fulfill our mission by (1) working toward systemic changes that advance the rights of all people with disabilities and (2) advocating for individual rights when a case meets our board adopted priorities and case selection criteria.

Due to limited resources, it is not possible for MPAS to provide legal services or direct representation to everyone who calls for assistance, however, MPAS provides several different levels of support and assistance.

MPAS believes that, as a person with a disability, you are your own best advocate when armed with accurate information and advice. Therefore, when appropriate, MPAS will provide you with information, training, advice, and written materials that can assist you in speaking for yourself.

MPAS' systemic advocacy work is designed to protect and advance your rights as a person with disabilities so that:

- You are legally protected from abuse, neglect, and exploitation.
- You can choose where and with whom you live and can determine for yourself what supports you need.
- You have equal employment opportunities.
- Communities are accessible and inclusive.
- All children with disabilities are provided a quality education with all supports and accommodations needed to develop marketable skills.
- You have equal access to affordable, quality health care.
- You and all other individuals with disabilities fully enjoy the rights, benefits, and privileges the law guarantees you.

MPAS Services Provided

Anyone may call the MPAS Information and Referral Service when they have a rights or advocacy question related to their disability. When appropriate, MPAS will provide information, referrals, or short-term technical assistance.

You may be referred for MPAS direct advocacy and/or legal representation if you are eligible and if your disability issue falls into one of the agency priorities listed on the following pages. MPAS is not, however, able to take every case for direct representation. MPAS reserves the right to select cases that:

- are in accordance with the MPAS mission
- have sound legal merit
- have the potential for effecting broad policy or systemic change and
- are consistent with legal ethical standards.

MPAS will not be able to take your case if you have other advocacy assistance, if you have other legal counsel, or you have the right to appointed counsel.

We periodically redefine the priority issues that allow us to directly represent you after gaining input from consumers, advocates, and family members. Reviews of disability research, local and national trends, and data analysis also help us determine our priority issues.
