

Important information about Category A applications

The Office of Economic Development is not accepting Transportation Economic Development Fund Category A applications at this time. We are updating our IT systems in order to better serve our customer's needs. Our new online application will be available April 15, 2014. Please contact your Grant Coordinator for additional guidance during this interim period. Contact information is available on this page. We apologize for any inconvenience.