

Each of these alternatives to driving solo to work not only saves on fuel costs, but comes with other benefits as well.

Carpooling

- Helps preserve the environment.
- Less wear and tear on personal vehicle.
- Less miles on personal vehicle.
- Personal vehicle insurance costs may decrease.

For more information, check out the "benefits of carpooling".

Public Transit

- Eliminating parking expenses.
- Extend personal vehicle life and reduce frequency of routine maintenance.
- Personal vehicle insurance costs may decrease.

Learn more about the options that are available in public transit.

Biking

- If you already have a bike, you're good to go. If not, new and used bicycles are reasonably priced.
- Good for longer distances.
- Provides exercise without putting stress on your joints.
- Provides speedy mobility.

Discover the advantages of exploring Michigan by bicycle.

Walking

- Walking is free. The more you walk, the more you save.
- Great exercise.
- Connect with the environment around you. Feel green.
- Quiet way to reduce pollution.

Explore the many benefits of walking.

To learn more about alternatives that could save you money while improving the environment and your health, check out the Alternatives to Driving section of our Web site.