

Research on the use of element level data and bridge management software in the network analysis of big bridges

#OR14-022

Requisition #1770

6/16/15

Q: Does the 5100J form need to be prepared by only the prime contractor, or is it required of subcontractors, as well?

A: Form 5100J only has to be filled out by the prime contractor.

Q: Does Form 5317 (Implementation Plan) need to be included in the proposal?

A: Form 5317 is not needed as part of the proposal. Page 11 of the Research Proposal Guidelines, section 2.5, describes the implementation information that should be included in the submitted proposal. It states in part, "The proposal should include a plan that describes the activities anticipated to promote application of the results of this research."
