

Distribution of Travel Related Information at Michigan Department of Transportation's (MDOT) Rest Areas and Roadside Parks

Permits may be issued by the Michigan Department of Transportation's (MDOT's) Transportation Service Center (TSC) Office's to nonprofit tourism or economic development organizations wishing to distribute tourism-related information at rest areas and roadside parks. An annual permit shall be used unless it is a one-time distribution only. No fees are charged for these permits.

Permits may be denied if the rest area/roadside park is at, or near, capacity or has other operational issues that shall conflict with this service.

Please refer to MDOT's Special Conditions for Distribution of Travel Related Information form (Form 2458) for additional information.

All construction permit applications are submitted and purchased through the Michigan Business OneStop online service.
