

MDOT and FAA sign agreement that improves flexibility for airport grants
Federal Aviation Administration (FAA) Manager John Mayfield (left) and State Transportation Director Kirk T. Steudle sign an agreement that renews the Block Grant Agreement between the two agencies. The agreement allows the State of Michigan increased responsibility and flexibility in administering FAA program funds to Michigan airports.