What Horse Racing Means to Michigan

Michigan horse racing is a $1.2 billion industry responsible for the creation of 42,300 jobs, $233 million in personal income, and total economic output of $439 million each year. The industry also generates about $31 million annually in state tax revenues, and supports capital facilities worth an estimated $700 million, according to a February 1995 study released by Public Sector Consultants, Inc., of Lansing.

There are an estimated 77,000 racing breed equine in the state. Horse racing is a labor-intensive activity and creates jobs on and off the tracks for trainers, drivers, jockeys, blacksmiths, grooms, veterinarians, racing officials, pari-mutuel clerks, guards, admission clerks, concessions workers, and numerous other personnel. With the addition of full-card simulcasting, Michigan tracks now offer year-round entertainment opportunities for horse race fans, meaning that seasonal work has turned into full-time jobs for track employees.

Michigan's horse racing industry reaches far beyond the grandstands of Michigan's pari-mutuel tracks. Horse racing provides economic support to many fairs through purse revenues for those fairs that offer nonpari-mutuel horse racing. Racing activities also provide direct financial support to Michigan's 4H programs and premiums (awards) at fairs throughout the state.

An important part of the state's economy, horse racing interests pay local property taxes on the tracks, and on breeding and training facilities. The tracks also contribute to the economy of the surrounding communities by purchasing goods and services. For example, successful bettors won over $322.9 million in 1999, and paid income taxes of $240,766 on their winnings. The tracks spent approximately $2 million in advertising in 1999 and the tracks paid more than $23 million in salaries and wages, providing employment and resulting income and payroll taxes to the state.

Indirectly, racing interests provide employment for farmers, transportation workers, restaurant and hotel personnel employed near the tracks, the media representatives who report on racing, and the workers who build and repair the training or track facilities, among others. Their collective contribution to the Michigan economy is substantial.

In many of the rural areas of our state, supplying the needs of race horses represents much of the local economy, and helps support and preserve the rural character of smaller communities. Farmers grow and sell the feed required by our state's race horse population. Grain elevator operations make sure that feed is available year-round. Barns and training facilities are available to horsemen on a year-round basis, supplying needed employment opportunities for Michigan citizens.

Pari-mutuel horse racing began in Michigan in September of 1933, with 31 days of Thoroughbred racing offered at the Michigan State Fairgrounds track in Detroit. The inaugural season attracted 101,227 fans who wagered over $3.5 million and generated $123,783 in state wagering tax.

Today, Michigan has seven licensed pari-mutuel race tracks, including five harness race tracks, one Thoroughbred track and one mixed breed track. The two largest tracks are located in the Detroit Metropolitan area, with the other five distributed around the lower half of the state. In 1999, the tracks presented a combined 2,218 days of live and simulcast pari-mutuel racing. This racing attracted over 1.7 million fans, who wagered over $416.6 million, generating over $12.6 million in state wagering tax revenue. Pari-mutuel racing produced $13.2 million in total horse racing revenue for Michigan in 1999, to support racing and other programs. Several million dollars were used to support county fairs across the state, and their programs. Local communities received over $1.9 million to defray the costs of police and fire protection. Financial incentives were offered to the breeders of the best Michigan-bred horses.

As demonstrated above, horse racing's payoff to Michigan is far greater than the dollars seen on the toteboard. Horse racing means jobs; horse racing means revenue; horse racing means entertainment; horse racing means investments; and horse racing means stability and continuity for our state's farming communities.

Sampling and Testing for Equine and Humans

The Office of Racing Commissioner's (ORC) equine and human blood/urine testing programs are important parts of the Commissioner's policing functions. The programs are conducted by the ORC and the Michigan Department of Agriculture (MDA) Equine Drug Testing Laboratory. The program involves the post-race collection of urine and/or blood samples from every pari-mutuel horse race conducted in Michigan and random/causal human testing for drugs and alcohol.

Equine samples are collected by ORC field staff from the winner of every race, and any other horse designated for testing by officials. The samples are then tested by the MDA Equine Drug Testing Laboratory to detect any prohibited drugs or foreign substances present.

Any drug or other substance not naturally present in the horse's system may either enhance or hinder its performance. It is the duty of the Commissioner to assure the wagering public that drugs or other foreign substances are not administered or present, except as authorized by law. The post-race analysis is an important part of this process.

Dr. Dale Conaway, supervisor of the MDA Equine Drug Testing Laboratory, oversees a team of trained and experienced scientists and technicians who analyze each blood or urine sample. Utilizing sophisticated testing methods and equipment, this drug detection group represents a valuable link in the Racing Commissioner's investigative chain.

A total of 9140 post-race samples were tested during 1999 (7967 urine, 1125 blood and 48 miscellaneous samples.) The total number of positives or instances of permitted medication over the approved level was 71 (38 of which were violations of the Michigan ORC permissible medication rule for phenylbutazone.)

As part of its regulatory efforts, the ORC employs a team of stewards, detention crew workers, veterinarians, licensed veterinarians, veterinarian technicians and investigators to ensure the integrity of the horse racing industry. Sample collection workers (usually three per track) collect the blood and urine samples from the horses for testing.

The ORC's veterinarians make sure the horses are sound and capable of racing, and supervise the horse sample collections. ORC veterinarians do not have equine practices of their own. Additional veterinarians, licensed by the ORC for practice in restricted areas at the race tracks, prescribe and administer medications to horses who may be at the tracks but are not scheduled to race. These licensed veterinarians have private equine practices.

Samples collected by the detection crew workers are delivered from the race tracks to the MDA Geagley Laboratory in East Lansing by couriers employed by the ORC. Samples are identified only by tag number to ensure confidential testing. The ORC keeps a copy of each tag number and the corresponding horse information (trainer, horse name, race day, track, etc.) If any samples test positive, the Laboratory contacts the ORC for confirmation and possible disciplinary action.

The cooperative efforts of the ORC and MDA Geagley Laboratory staff help ensure fairness, honesty and integrity of the horse racing industry for the betting public.

1999: The Year in Review

In January, Great Lakes Downs began reconstruction of vacant facilities at the former Muskegon Racecourse, which closed its doors on May 19, 1997. Great Lakes Downs initiated simulcasting on January 29. Simulcasting was conducted in part of the clubhouse as construction on the buildings, track, and barns continued. Great Lakes Downs' opening date for live Thoroughbred racing was April 23, making it Michigan's only live all Thoroughbred racing venue since the permanent closure of Ladbroke DRC (Detroit Race Course) at the end of 1998.

Also in January, two new pieces of legislation, enacted at the end of 1998, went into effect. The first allowed for the redistribution of uncashed winning pari-mutuel tickets. The second amended several sections of the Horse Racing Law of 1995. According to the Michigan Gaming Index (www.michigangaming.com), the law allows for a "variety of needed improvements" to local track operations, including extending the time for live racing, moving the date for filing of racing license applications, and allowing tracks to increase commissions on multiple wagers.

In March, Acting Deputy Racing Commissioner Thomas R. Dorsey retired from his position after a career that spanned 50 years of involvement with the Michigan horse racing industry. In addition to two periods of service as a Deputy Racing Commissioner for the State of Michigan, Dorsey was active in many other aspects of the industry including training, breeding and track operations. Several articles in national gaming publications praised him for his long and distinguished service to the Michigan horse racing industry.

In March, Act No. 505 of 1998, as amended, had its first impact. The new law changed the distribution of the funds from unclaimed winning tickets ('outs monies'). Sixty days after the end of a race meeting, the funds from all uncashed tickets were divided so that half stays with the track that generated the funds, and the other half goes into the Michigan Agriculture Equine Industry Development Fund for program use.

In April, Hazel Park Harness Raceway opened for its 50th year of live racing. The facility first opened on August 17, 1949. In its inaugural year, Hazel Park offered Thoroughbred racing only. The track began harness (Standardbred) racing in 1953, and offered both Thoroughbred and Standardbred racing from 1953 through 1984. In 1985, it became an exclusively Standardbred track.

On Friday, April 23, Great Lakes Downs began live Thoroughbred racing as scheduled. As noted above, the track became Michigan's only live Thoroughbred racing venue, replacing Labroke DRC.

In May, Great Lakes Downs was granted leave by the ORC to cancel all Tuesday racing programs for the month of May due to a lack of horses. Tuesday programs resumed on June 1.

In July, Governor Engler appointed Annette M. Bacola as Racing Commissioner of the State of Michigan. Bacola became Michigan's first female racing commissioner, the only woman to hold the top racing commission post in the United States.

1999: The Year in Review

On August 2, Commissioner Bacola's term officially began, replacing Dan Wyant, Director of the Michigan Department of Agriculture. Wyant had been serving as Acting Racing Commissioner since the position was vacated in late 1997 by former Racing Commissioner Nelson Westrin.

On August 28, Mary Doser, a jockey at Great Lakes Downs, won her 136th race of the year. As noted by Gene Guidi in an article in the Detroit Free Press, that win made her "...the winningest female jockey in the country in 1999."

In September, the general manager and track president of Great Lakes Downs, Mike Mackey, announced his resignation from the track.

On September 25, Racing Commissioner Annette M. Bacola presented the 1997 and 1998 Standardbred Pacer and Trotter Horse of the Year awards at Hazel Park Harness Raceway. The presentation of the awards had been suspended pending the Governor's appointment of a permanent racing commissioner.

In October, the ORC sponsored horse racing billboards in conjunction with the Michigan Department of Agriculture's Select Michigan promotion. The horse racing billboards were posted in the Lansing area along the I-96 and US 127 corridors as well as other locations in the Greater Lansing area.

On October 4, the ORC held its traditional hearing on 2000 race meeting license applications.

On October 19, the ORC Advisory Board held its first meeting in Livonia. The Advisory Board was created "...to establish and facilitate a direct collaboration between the industry and the ORC, and to develop recommendations on matters pertaining to the racing industry's health and growth."

On October 29, the ORC finalized all date orders for the live and simulcast schedule for the year 2000.

On November 12, 1999, Racing Commissioner Annette M. Bacola presented the 1997 and 1998 Thoroughbred and Quarter Horse of the Year awards at the North American Horse Spectacular in Novi, Michigan. In addition to these awards, Bacola honored Jerry and Lisa Campbell, the founders of Great Lakes Downs, with the Commissioner's Award of Excellence for their role in preserving Michigan's Thoroughbred racing industry.

In December, meetings were initiated between Jerry Campbell of Great Lakes Downs and Frank Stronach of Magna Entertainment, the largest racing organization in the world. These meetings outlined the transfer of license and sale of assets of Great Lakes Downs, as well as the promotion of Jerry Campbell to CEO of Magna Entertainment and the subsequent relocation of Magna Entertainment headquarters to Michigan.

Total State Revenue:	$	13,202,927.51

"Outs" are funds received from outstanding uncashed winning pari-mutuel tickets:

Great Lakes Downs	$	77,282.50
Hazel Park Harness Raceway	$	379,337.18
Jackson Harness Raceway	$	32,333.83
Mount Pleasant Meadows	$	5,567.38

+Act No. 505 of 1998 amended the law covering the distribution of funds from outstanding uncashed winning tickets (Outs). Previous to this amendment, all Outs funds were sent to the Michigan Department of Treasury, Abandoned and Unclaimed Property Division, for future claims and eventually reverted to the State General Fund pursuant to law. The amendment Act 505 changed the distribution of Outs monies. Outstanding uncashed tickets could be cashed for only 60 days after the end of a race meeting, as opposed to an unlimited period of time under the previous law. After 60 days the race meeting licensee now retains 50% of the remaining Outs funds and deposits the other 50% to the Michigan Agriculture Equine Fund established under the Horse Racing Law of 1995, as amended. This makes the Outs funds available for track expenditures, purse monies and the various programs under the Michigan Agriculture Equine Fund.
