

James Butler III, Director, Office of Employee Services

The purpose of the Office of Employee Services is to provide premiere customer service and support to all employees. This division promotes two-way internal communication, provides oversight for the Authority's employee engagement action plan, offers training for employees, promotes career growth and development, and recognizes and rewards staff for outstanding service.

Email: butlerj4@michigan.gov

Office: 517-373-3499

