

Mothers Against Drunk Driving (MADD) Lifesavers Awards

- The Mothers Against Drunk Driving (MADD) Lifesavers Awards highlight officers and law enforcement agencies who embrace MADD’s mission to eliminate drunk driving, support victims, and prevent underage drinking.
- MADD Lifesavers Awards are presented annually. Individuals and organizations can be nominated by their peers, commanding officers, or community members.
- The award categories include:
 - Outstanding Officer: Officers who made a difference in the area(s) of education, prevention, policy or enforcement which reduced impaired driving deaths and injuries.
 - Outstanding Rookie: Rookie officers, defined as an officer with less than one year of service, who made a difference in the area(s) of education, prevention, policy or enforcement which reduced impaired driving deaths and injuries.
 - Outstanding Law Enforcement Agency: Law enforcement agencies that made a difference in the area(s) of education, prevention, policy or enforcement which reduced impaired driving deaths and injuries.
 - Recognition of Excellence: Individuals or agencies working in the area(s) of education, prevention or innovation to reduce impaired driving. This might include new or significant approaches to reducing impaired driving or going above and beyond the normal bounds of duty to address impaired driving issues.
- The Olivia Cleveland Gratitude Award salutes those who demonstrate outstanding commitment to eliminating impaired driving. The inaugural award was presented in 2013 by the Cleveland family in honor of 3-year-old Olivia Cleveland who was killed in a crash involving an impaired driver in 2012. Olivia’s father, John, is an officer with the Ferndale Police Department and has previously received a MADD Lifesavers Award.
