Funding status of the State Police Retirement System

This issue of Connections provides a summary of the financial standings reported in the 2006 Comprehensive Annual Financial Report (CAFR). It is meant to give you a quick and easy synopsis of the system's financial activities for the fiscal year that ended September 30, 2006.

The funded status of the system as reported in the CAFR is 83.8 percent. The higher the percentage, the stronger the pension system. The calculation of this percentage is explained in detail in the financial section of the 2006 CAFR, which can be found at www.michigan.gov/ors.

Because of dynamic market changes, the retirement system invests for the long run in a broad, diversified group of assets. This strategy helps to stabilize returns over time. Pension payments are guaranteed by the Michigan Constitution.

During fiscal year 2005-2006 the retirement system's net assets increased to $1.2 billion. The major sources of revenue were investment income and contributions. The major expenditures were benefit payments.

As of September 30, 2006, there were 2,711 retirees and beneficiaries receiving monthly benefits. Approximately 1,678 active employees were reported during fiscal year 2005-2006. Of these, 1,094 have fully vested rights to their retirement benefits.

A financial summary of your retirement system for fiscal year 2006 can be found on the back page of this newsletter.

Website boasts user-friendly upgrades

Looking for an easier way to answer your retirement questions? The new ORS website for the State Police Retirement System offers members quick and easy access to retirement information.

Customer Education staff at ORS created the site to flow more logically by mirroring the new Retirement Guidelines publication. Clear navigation buttons organize information into specific categories such as Available Benefits, Ready to Retire, and After you Retire.

From the Director

I am honored to serve as your director of the Office of Retirement Services within the Department of Management and Budget.

Since 1988 I have been with this office and throughout my tenure I have had the opportunity and good fortune to work alongside great coworkers and supportive leaders. I've seen great strides in customer service, staff development, and strategic business planning.

Our office has always and will continue to pride itself on being proactive in identifying and meeting the needs of our customers in a timely and cost-effective manner. In 2006 we celebrated great milestones: our on-line employer reporting process is fully implemented, and we converted to our new pension payment processing system. These process enhancements offer increased efficiencies and improved services to you, our customers, as well as our staff, and we look forward to celebrating even greater improvements in the years to come.

Throughout the years we have received valuable feedback from our customers and I hope that you will continue to share your suggestions with us so that we can continue to provide you with top-notch services.

Sincerely,

Phil Stoddard

Working after you retire

If you are considering employment after you retire, you are certainly not alone. As 60 becomes the new 40, many retirees don't feel ready to fall into the stereotypical retirement. A new job or career is a great way to maintain a happy and healthy lifestyle in retirement. Read on for tips on working after retirement.

Have fun. Retirement is an excellent opportunity to discover what you enjoy doing and how exactly you want to spend your time. Find work relating to a life-long hobby or try something new that perhaps wasn't possible before retirement. This could be personally fulfilling and may help keep your mind and body active.

Make extra cash. Why not put some extra money in your pocket while indulging in a hobby? Some retirees may find their retirement benefits, social security, and personal savings fall short of supporting desired lifestyles or goals. Returning to work could compensate for a shortage in retirement income.

Your state police retirement benefits. If you work after you retire, your earnings usually won't affect your pension unless you are receiving a disability pension. For more information, visit our website at www.michigan.gov/ormsmp.

While returning to work is a great option for many retirees, some may prefer to focus on leisure and relaxation. Either way, do what is best for you and ENJOY.

WHEN TO CONTACT ORS

Not sure what needs to be reported? Here we list the most common situations that would require contact with ORS. Please use it as a general guide only. Because we can't list every possible event that should be reported, it's best to contact us if you're unsure.

Address Change. Be sure ORS knows your current mailing address at all times so you receive your statements and other important notices.

Death. ORS should be immediately notified upon the death of a pension recipient; a pension beneficiary; or anyone enrolled in your health, dental, or vision insurances.

Divorce. Notify ORS immediately if your ex-spouse is enrolled in your insurances. And, if you elected a survivor option with your ex-spouse as beneficiary, it's best to contact us before your divorce because we can only change your pension if ordered by the court.

EFT Change. Notify us if you want to sign up for electronic funds transfer (EFT) or change your EFT bank account. Be sure to keep your old account open until your pension payment is deposited to the new account.

Marriage. Notify ORS within 30 days whenever an insurance dependent marries, or if you wish to enroll your new spouse in your insurances.

Medicare. Any person enrolled in your health insurances must sign up for Medicare Parts A & B when first eligible. Send ORS a copy of the Medicare card if this happens before age 65 or if you are a retired state trooper.

Details about reporting these and other life events, as well as forms you'll need, can be found online or by contacting ORS.

Pension due dates

Pension payments are issued on the 25th of the month. If the 25th falls on a weekend or holiday, your pension will be paid the previous business day.

If your EFT is not credited within three days after that date, please call ORS. If your check is delayed, we can reissue it after the seventh of the following month.

Holidays

ORS offices will be closed on the dates listed below.

May 28 - Memorial Day

July 4 - Fourth of July

September 3 - Labor Day
