BOI Actions For SMRS

- Proactively sold $3.7 billion in equities in the 18 months prior to December 31, 2008.
- Reduced financials weighting before advent of crisis, and further reduced weighting as impact became clear.
- Used sale proceeds to pay pension benefits and moved the remaining money into Fixed Income.
- Did not increase exposure to international equities which have continued to underperform the U.S. stock markets.
- Held a high quality bond portfolio.

What the BOI is Currently Doing

- Keeping enough cash to pay benefits for over one year.
- Developed and Approved (Q1-2008) an asset allocation plan that further reduces risk by adding additional asset classes.
- Overweighting portfolio towards attractively priced companies that are less dependant on capital markets for funding (strong balance sheets).
- Will increase exposure to foreign markets, over time.
- Tactically buying in distressed markets in all asset classes.
- Increasing exposure to bonds in high quality companies.
