STAFFING

The parties agree that a proper relationship of workload to staff is a desirable goal to attain.

The parties also recognize that the individual employing Agencies are limited, in part, by their legislative appropriation with respect to the number of employees that can be retained on the payroll at any one time.

The parties agree that a proper subject in Labor-Management Conferences is criteria for staffing ratios and reasonable production standards. The parties agree further to seek opportunities for cooperative approaches to legislative bodies to accomplish necessary staffing.
