* Poverty Thresholds : The poverty thresholds for the United States are computed annually by the Bureau of the Census as a means for counting the nation's low-income population. The poverty thresholds form the basis for all other poverty levels used by the Federal Government including the poverty income guidelines (discussed on the following page). The poverty thresholds are generally used by the Department of Human Services and others for determining the number of people in poverty and for presenting data that classify low-income people by type of residence, race, and other social, economic and demographic characteristics. The poverty thresholds are updated annually by the percentage change in the Consumer Price Index. The Department of Human Services does not calculate separate poverty thresholds for Michigan. However, for budget and program purposes DHS does calculate poverty thresholds for future years based on projected increases in the CPI-U (for all urban consumers).

** Figures for CY 2007 are final Census Bureau amounts published in the federal Register (August 2009).

Figures for CY 2008 are U.S. Census Bureau Preliminary Estimates of Weighted Average Poverty Thresholds (released January 15, 2009)..

Estimated thresholds for CY 2009 reflect U.S. CPI-U increases of 0.7% over CY 2008. Estimated thresholds for CY 2010 reflect CPI-U increases of 2.5% over CY 2009.

CPI-U factors for each year are State of Michigan Consensus Economic Forecasts (January 9, 2009).

* The Federal Poverty Income Guidelines (above) are a simplified version of the Federal Government's official statistical poverty thresholds (previous page). Developed and issued by the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services (HHS), they are used by the Department of Human Services and others for administrative purposes such as determining whether a person or family is financially eligible for assistance or services under a particular Federal program.

** Final figures for CY 2009 were published in the Federal Register January 23, 2009.

** CY 2010 Poverty Income Guidelines are Budget Division projections (January 2009).
