Attending a recent graduation ceremony for the Electrical Line Technician Program at K.I. Sawyer were: Front row, from left, Nathan Chaperon, Josh Dessellier, Tanner Norman, Carlo Langsford, Evan Erickson, Lisa Palmcook, Jeremy Leake and Nicholas Yaklyvich; back row, from left, instructor Mike Janssen, Joel Erickson, Justin Robillard, Seth Hillsabeck, Andrew Ahonen, Justin Gieszer, Dustin Spulak, Brock Waugh, Derek Stafford, Brady LeDuc, David Allain,

Scott Blocher, Jeffrey Martin, Nathan Sothard and instructor Jerry LePage. This was the fifth graduation class in the program, which is offered by the Lake Superior Community Partnership Foundation and Northern Michigan University. This year's class speaker was Jeremy Leake and alumni speaker was Jeff Senski from the Class of 2004. The program is a pre-apprenticeship program that prepares students to install, maintain and operate electrical systems to supply energy to residential, commercial and industrial customers, and to underground generation facilities. Classes and instruction for the program are held at the Midwest Skills Development Center at Sawyer Air Force Base. For more information, contact the partnership foundation at 226-9658 or 888-578-6489, or visit its Web site at www.lscpfoundation.org.
