February 16, 2016

Nicolas Proctor 416 Madison Howell, Michigan 48843

Dear Mr. Proctor:

The Department of State (Department) received a formal complaint filed by Douglas Heins against you, alleging that you violated section 47(1) of the Michigan Campaign Finance Act (MCFA), 1976 PA 388, MCL 169.247(1), by failing to include a complete and correct identification statement on certain campaign signs. A copy of the complaint is provided as an enclosure with this letter.

The MCFA and corresponding administrative rules require a person who produces printed material that relates to an election to include the phrase "Paid for by [name and address of the person who paid for the item]." MCL 169.247(1), Mich. Admin. R 169.36(2). A knowing violation constitutes a misdemeanor offense punishable by a fine of up to $1,000.00, imprisonment for up to 93 days, or both. MCL 169.247(6).

In support of his complaint, Mr. Heins provided pictures of a sign which states, "VOTE Nick Proctor for Howell Mayor [.]" The paid-for-by statement on the sign appears to be incomplete.

The purpose of this letter is to inform you of the Department's examination of these matters and your right to respond to the allegations before the Department proceeds further. It is important to understand that the Department is neither making this complaint nor accepting the allegations as true.

If you wish to file a written response to the complaint, you are required to do so within 15 business days of the date of this letter. Your response may include any written statement or additional documentary evidence you wish to submit. All materials must be sent to the Department of State, Bureau of Elections, Richard H. Austin Building, 1st Floor, 430 West Allegan Street, Lansing, Michigan 48918. If you fail to submit a response, the Department will render a decision based on the evidence furnished by the complainant.

A copy of your reply will be provided to Mr. Heins, who will have an opportunity to submit a rebuttal statement to the Department. After reviewing all of the statements and materials provided by the parties, the Department will determine whether "there may be reason to believe that a violation of [the MCFA] has occurred [.]" MCL 169.215(10). Note that the Department's enforcement powers include the possibility of entering a conciliation agreement, conducting an administrative hearing, or referring this matter to the Attorney General for enforcement of the criminal penalty provided in section 47(6) of the Act.

Section 3. Alleged Violations

This is the second election cycle for candidate Proctor. As duly elected lawmaker and a person that votes for legislation that includes fines and penalties for noncompliance with city laws, he clearly knows from his previous election to city council the correct election rules and as now as an elected lawmaker should be held accountable for not following the election rules and law.

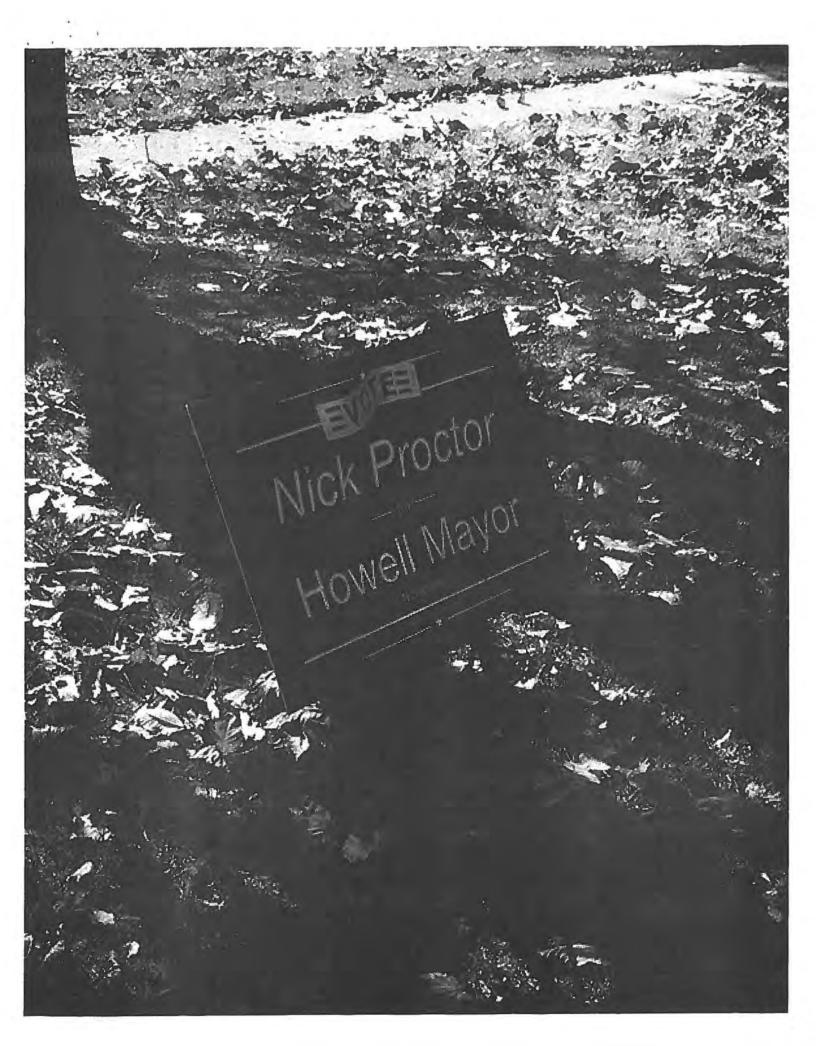

This is not an innocent error. This coupled with the fact that candidate Proctor was told by this complainant many days before the election that his signs were in violation, but Proctor chose to allow them to remain up during the election knowingly demonstrates the candidate did not believe he had to comply with the sprit or intent of law.

Ms. Bourbonais:

Thank you for your correspondence allowing me to respond to allegations that I failed to fully comply with elements of Michigan election law. Running unopposed and in an attempt to keep my costs to a minimum, my initial focus was to have a single mailing of postcards to voters. However, a last minute addition of about forty (40) yard signs was included. In my haste, I neglected to include my home address under the "paid for by candidate" phrase. The postcards, however, were in full compliance and copies are included for your review.

Unfortunately, I didn't notice the oversight when providing the yard sign to those residents and business asking to have one. In late September and while at the Livingston County Courthouse complying with election finance reporting, the elections official brought the oversight to my attention. She believed that since I was running unopposed, the violation would not impact voter intent or place an opponent at an electoral disadvantage. Nonetheless, it was a violation and I ceased placing any additional yard signs.

From my recollection, there were ten (10) residents and five (5) businesses that had yard signs in place. To remedy my oversight and at the suggestion of the county elections official, I placed address labels below the "paid for by candidate" phrase. This worked well for those at indoor business locations. In candor, however, the address label faded on those signs outdoors – and after replacing the faded labels once, I gave up on the effort once the second one faded.

The complainant's assertion that he personally told me of the violation well in advance of the election is inaccurate. After our city council meeting of October 26, 2015, the complainant informed me in anger that my yard signs were in violation of election law – only one week from election day. He apparently decided to overlook my remediation efforts or bring it to my attention much earlier. His anger, no doubt, stemmed from a heated council meeting where he was confronted directly over his campaign literature – literature taped to residences and placed in mailboxes without appropriate attribution - alleging corruption. The assertions were confronted directly and evidence was requested supporting these claims. Evidence was to be recorded in the meeting minutes and turned over to the Livingston County District Attorney. No evidence was provided tacitly revealing the fallacious, slanderous and libelous intent of the complainant's literature. Unfortunately, this wasn't the first time where outlandish and false claims by the complainant had to be confronted during Council meetings. Frankly, our residents are weary of this type behavior. The minutes of this meeting can be found on the City of Howell's website.

I view this complaint, albeit with some validity, nothing short of vindictive retribution for confronting outrageous behavior. And in a note of hypocrisy, the complainant's large campaign signs neglected any statement on who funded them and was absent any address (photographic evidence). Nonetheless, this does not obviate the fact that my yard signs didn't have an address, as my postcards did, and my remediation efforts met with mixed results. The absence of the address on the yard signs was a simple oversight – not an attempt to circumvent election law or to impact the electorate.

Thank you, again, for this opportunity to respond – along with some "color commentary." I can provide assurances that, should I decide to ask the voters of Howell for another two-year term, all campaign literature and signs will be in full compliance.

Sincerely,

Nickolas W. Proctor 416 Madison

A Common Sense Approach to Manage Howell's Future

It was a short two years ago when I asked for your support in electing a new voice to Howell's City Council. With resignations earlier this year of both our mayor and mayor pro-tem, I now ask for your support to continue efforts to stabilize our city's political structure and continue efforts to chart our strategic direction. To do so, I intend to use our newly adopted "master plan" as a template for both our budget and performance assessment process. To augment my personal availability to all residents, I plan to implement a "town hall" process to discuss issues of concern.

As such, I'm asking for your support for a full two year term as your mayor. In addition, your input is needed on two important educational initiatives also on the ballot this year, Thanks - Nick

Dear Mr. Proctor:

This letter concerns the complaint that was recently filed against you by Douglas Heins, which relates to a purported violation of the Michigan Campaign Finance Act (MCFA or Act), 1976 PA 388, MCL 169.201 et seq. The Department of State has received a rebuttal statement from the complainant, a copy of which is enclosed with this letter.

Section 15(10) of the MCFA, MCL 169.215(10), requires the Department to determine within 45 business days from the receipt of the rebuttal statement whether there is a reason to believe that a violation of the Act has occurred. Mr. Heins' complaint remains under investigation at this time. At the conclusion of the review, all parties will receive written notice of the outcome of the complaint.

Sincerely,

Ms. Bourbonais,

I find Mr. Proctor response to my complaint disingenuous and stretches credibility.

Mr. Proctor did acknowledge his non-compliance with election law requirements.

Mr. Proctor did acknowledged a failure of his 'alleged" corrective action to update his yard signs.

Mr. Proctor did not identify any campaign expenditure for "correction" stickers for the yard signs. (Copy of final election expense filing attached)

Mr. Proctor has not provided any physical evidence that the inaccurate yard signs were ever corrected other than his written statement.

According to Proctor's response; when he updated his Statement of Organization on September 21st, 2015, he was notified by the County Clerk of the failure to properly identify his signs and postcards with the correct "paid for" statements to comply with election law requirements.

It stretches believability, which after his notification in September, Mr. Proctor states his yard signs were stickered twice but the stickers weathered off. One would think that if the original attempt to correct the problem failed, a more durable method would be applied on his second attempt. One may venture that rather than actually remedy the problems with new or updated signs, Mr. Proctor rolled the dice and likely believed a complaint would not be filed as he was running unopposed. As he stated in his letter, if it's not a contested race, it doesn't really matter that much, so will a precedent established that one can look that other way in uncontested elections with incomplete compliance with election laws and regulations?

I have enclosed three photos (with photo log dates) taken a various locations in Howell on October 24th, 25th, and 29th, about one week before the election. Not a single sign shows any ANY evidence of stickers placed on the "Paid For" section. If the signs had the faded stickers from the initial attempt to correct it was not evident. There is no adhesive residue present as can be seen in the photos.

Not the first time, not a second time. Nor, during my door to door campaign, did I ever observe even a single one of any of Proctors' yard signs with the corrections.

What are the odds that every one of Mr. Proctor outdoor signs had ALL the corrective stickers' weather off without any evidence they had been updated?

There is no photographic or financial evidence at all the Mr. Proctor made the alleged attempt to correct the violation even though Mr. Proctor had WEEKS to remedy the violation.

Rather than remedy the failure of his "stickers" to correct the problem with the mismarked signs by removing them or replace them with new signs, he mostly likely knowingly and willing kept them posted through the election in public view.

I find his response to the complaint disingenuous, his failure to comply and remedy the violation after weeks of notice is not an innocent error, but a mockery to the election law process.

Sincerely,

Douglas Heins

STATE OF MICHIGAN RUTH JOHNSON, SECRETARY OF STATE DEPARTMENT OF STATE LANSING

March 22, 2016

Nickolas Proctor 416 Madison Howell, Michigan 48843

Dear Mr. Proctor:

The Department of State (Department) has completed its investigation of the complaint filed against you by Douglas Heins, which alleged that you violated section 47(1) of the Michigan Campaign Finance Act (MCFA or Act), 1976 PA 388, MCL 169.247(1), by failing to include a complete and correct identification statement on your campaign signs. This letter concerns the disposition of Mr. Heins' complaint.

The MCFA and corresponding administrative rules require a person who produces printed material that relates to an election to include the phrase "Paid for by [name and address of the person who paid for the item]." MCL 169.247(1), R 169.36(2). A knowing violation constitutes a misdemeanor offense punishable by a fine of up to $1,000.00, imprisonment for up to 93 days, or both. MCL 169.247(6).

The Act also requires the Department to "endeavor to correct the violation or prevent a further violation by using informal methods [,]" if it finds that "there may be reason to believe that a violation ... has occurred [.]" MCL 169.215(10). The objective of an informal resolution is "to correct the violation or prevent a further violation [.]" Id.

Mr. Heins filed his complaint on February 8, 2016. You filed a written response on March 1, 2016, and Mr. Heins filed a rebuttal statement on March 14, 2016.

Mr. Heins alleged that you failed to include a complete and correct paid-for-by statement on your campaign signs. In support of his complaint, Mr. Heins provided pictures of signs which stated, "Nick Proctor for Howell Mayor" and "Paid for by the Candidate [.]"

In your response you indicated that you ordered your signs as a last minute addition to your campaign, and you admitted that in haste you "neglected to include [your] home address under the 'paid for by candidate' phrase [.]" You also asserted that you did attempt to correct the signs by affixing address labels to them, but the labels faded on the outdoor signs.

While the Department finds that the evidence provided supports a reason to believe that your campaign material failed to contain a complete and correct paid-for-by statement, section 15(10) of the MCFA requires the Department to "endeavor to correct the violation or prevent a further violation by using informal methods such as a conference, conciliation, or persuasion [.]" To resolve this matter informally, the Department is issuing this warning letter.

The Department is advising you that section 47(1) and R 169.36(2) require you to print a complete and accurate identification statement on all campaign materials, consisting of the phrase "paid for by" followed by the full name and address of your committee. Note that all printed materials that refer to an election or your candidacy produced in the future must include this identification statement.

Please be advised that this notice has served to remind you of your obligation under the Act to identify your printed matter, and may be used in future proceedings as evidence that tends to establish a knowing violation of the Act. A knowing violation is a misdemeanor offense and may merit referral to the Attorney General for enforcement action. MCL 169.247(6), 215(10).

The Department now considers this matter closed and will take no further action against you at this time.

Sincerely,
