

Election Officials' Accreditation Study Guide

An Accreditation Program for County, City, Township and Village
Election Officials

Michigan Department of State
Bureau of Elections

June 2011

Introduction

There are three steps to completing the Election Officials' Accreditation Program mandated under Michigan election law:

- 1.) attending a Clerk Accreditation workshop;
- 2.) studying the information presented in this guide; and
- 3.) completing and returning the accompanying "Self-Administered Accreditation Exam." (Instructions for completing and returning the exam are provided on the exam form. See Appendix II.)

After studying the guide, we encourage you to retain it for future reference as it is designed to serve as a lasting information resource on election related matters. If you have any questions or suggestions for improving the Election Officials' Accreditation Program, please do not hesitate to contact us!
