

Emergency Unemployment Compensation (EUC) 2012

The chart below outlines the EUC entitlement based on the maximum regular Unemployment Insurance (UI) entitlement and the week of filing. EUC expires week ending December 29, 2012. The last week to qualify for and be paid EUC is week ending December 29, 2012. In order to receive EUC, unemployed workers are required to participate in Reemployment Eligibility Assessment (REA) activities with the Michigan Works! Agency (MWA), be actively seeking work, and complete Form UIA 1583EUC, Bi-Weekly Emergency Unemployment Compensation (EUC) Record of Work Search. Form UIA 1583EUC may be completed and submitted online at www.michigan.gov/uia, or by fax, or mail:

NOTE: Unemployed workers must file for EUC Tier 1. There is no action required by unemployed workers to advance to the remaining tiers of EUC.

**While calculations may be greater, the maximum benefits previously established will not be exceeded (e.g. 26 weeks X 24%=6.24).*

NOTE: For claims with less than the maximum entitlement to regular UI benefits, use the percentages provided in the table above to calculate actual EUC entitlement.

The last day to qualify for up to 16 weeks of benefits on EUC Tier 4 was week ending June 2, 2012. The last day to qualify for up to 6 weeks of benefits on EUC Tier 4 was week ending June 30, 2012. Unemployed workers currently collecting benefits on EUC Tiers 1- 4 will continue to collect the balance of their benefits until the later of exhaustion or week ending December 29, 2012.

<sup>[4]</sup> EUC Tier 4 temporarily expired June 30, 2012 and resumed after October 6, 2012.
