PROTECTING LGBTQ+ RIGHTS

LGBTQ+ Michiganders are an essential part of who we are, and they make our state a better place to live and work. Members of our LGBTQ+ community deserve full protection under the law so they can live their authentic lives. Governor Whitmer has taken action to prohibit conversion therapy and strengthen protections against LGBTQ+ Michiganders in state employment. She also called on the legislature to expand the Eliot-Larsen Civil Rights Act to include sexual orientation, gender identity, and gender expression. We still have work to do to make Michigan a truly inclusive state. We must continue to fight to make sure LGBTQ+ individuals feel safe, valued, and know that their state will invest in their health and potential.

TAKING EXECUTIVE ACTION

- Signed an Executive Directive to prohibit the Michigan Department of Health and Human Services to use of any state and federal funds for conversion therapy on minors. It also requires that any department or agency that regulates, provides, procures, or pays for medical or mental health services for Michiganders must act to protect minors from conversion therapy.
- Signed an Executive Directive to strengthen protections against discrimination in state employment, including for gender identity or expression and sexual orientation. This directive also extended those protections to the employees of anyone doing business with the state.

ADVOCATING FOR LGBTQ+ RIGHTS

- Called on the legislature to send her a bill expanding Michigan's Elliot Larsen Civil Rights Act to include "sexual orientation, gender identity or expression."
- Strongly opposed and committed to veto any anti-trans legislation that hits her desk, including Senate Bill 218 was introduced earlier this year and bans trans high school athletes from playing on a team that is consistent with their gender identity.

"Fighting for policies that pursue equity for Michigan's LGBTQ+ community is more than just the right thing to do. It's personal. It's fighting for friends, members of my staff, and loved ones. From day one, my administration has been on the side of progress – and it will continue to be."
