NEW BUSINESS

A. Health Professional Recovery Committee

Siracuse shared with Board members that he is seeking their assistance in identifying individuals who are eligible and willing to represent the Task Force on Physician's Assistants on the Health Professionals Recovery Committee. The HPRC is seeking a new representative for the Task Force on Physician's Assistants.

Board members may contact Siracuse at SiracuseM@michigan.gov with any potential candidates.

A request was made by the Task Force for additional discussion at the next meeting on the oversight of the HPRC. Siracuse agreed to discuss at subsequent meeting.

B. Department Update

Siracuse announced that former Policy Analyst, Karen Carpenter, is back with the Boards and Committees Section of the Department and has been reassigned to this Task Force.

A public hearing for the human trafficking training requirements has been scheduled for November 12, 2015. Details can be located on the Office of Regulatory Reinvention (ORR) website. Anyone is welcome to attend.

Basso inquired if the Department is any closer to providing costs associated with investigations. Abdo indicated that she will look into this matter.

PUBLIC COMMENT

Michael DeGrow from the Michigan Academy of Physician Assistants is searching for a Health Professional Recovery Committee candidate for the Task Force on Physician's Assistants.

Anita Folino, attorney, addressed the Board with further comments regarding the regulatory consideration case that was before the Task Force members today. She was asked repeatedly by several Department staff to refrain from further comments. Security was asked to intervene.

Natalie Schutte, licensee, commented that the Department should do a better job of educating and working together with the Task Force members on policy and procedure changes.
