Townhall for Input on UIAC Administrative Rules

You are invited to participate in a Townhall Meeting to provide input on administrative rules applicable to proceedings at the Unemployment Insurance Appeals Commission (UIAC).

The following rules are under consideration for revision:

Michigan Administrative Code Rules 792.11401 through 792.11404 - - General provisions
792.11417 through 792.11433 - - UIAC proceedings

The Commission will consider your suggestions for revision of any of these rules.

You will be provided 5 minutes to make a statement and 10 minutes to take questions from the Commissioners, with your RSVP. A half hour at the end is reserved for a moderated discussion with participants (no RSVP required). At that time, the Townhall will be open for general comments and for participants to comment on suggestions made by other members of the public.

Date: February 11, 2021
Time: 10:00 AM to 11:30 AM
Call in Credentials: 1 888 788 0099 US Toll-free
Meeting ID: 850 7151 2719

Please send your RSVP to the UIAC at LEO-UIAC-Info@Michigan.gov. No RSVP is necessary to participate in the open session at the end.

Written suggestions received by the UIAC in response to its January 2020 request for input on the rules are posted on the UIAC website at www.michigan.gov/uiac. The UIAC will continue to accept additional written suggestions at the above email address through February 5, 2021. Include in your submission whether you grant permission for your suggestions to be published on the UIAC website. You may also contact the UIAC at that email address with your input regarding rule revisions or questions about the Townhall.

The Townhall will be conducted electronically to protect the public, the Commissioners and staff from COVID-19 health hazards. Persons who may need additional assistance to participate should contact the UIAC at CurtisV@Michigan.gov at least 48 hours in advance of the Townhall.

Upon completion of a draft set of revised rules, notice and public hearing will be provided under the Administrative Procedures Act, MCL 24.201 et seq.
