RECITALS

WHEREAS, Bell Memorial Hospital and Bell Medical Center (collectively, "Bell") and Buyer are parties to an Asset Purchase Agreement, dated as of June 19, 2013 (the "Purchase Agreement"), pursuant to which Bell is selling substantially all its assets to Buyer (the "Transaction");

WHEREAS the Michigan Department of Attorney General ("Attorney General"), Bell, Monitor, Buyer and LifePoint Hospitals, Inc. are parties to a certain Monitoring, Compliance And Enforcement Agreement Among The Department Of Attorney General, Bell Memorial Hospital, Bell Medical Center, Acquisition Bell Hospital, LLC, LifePoint Hospitals Holdings, Inc., and Stout Risius Ross (the "Enforcement Agreement") required by the Attorney General in connection with its approval of the Transaction;

WHEREAS, Section 3.J of the Enforcement Agreement contemplates a confidentiality agreement between Monitor and Buyer;

NOW, THEREFORE, for and in consideration of the premises, agreements and covenants, hereinafter set forth, and other good and valuable consideration, the receipt and adequacy of all of which are forever acknowledged and confessed, the Parties hereby agree as follows:

TERMS

1. Defined Terms

The Parties incorporate by reference into this Agreement Section 1 of the Enforcement Agreement in its entirety. All capitalized terms used in this contract and not otherwise defined herein shall have the meanings as defined in the Enforcement Agreement.

2. Confidential Information

- A. All Confidential Information (as defined below) received by Monitor from Buyer pursuant to the Enforcement Agreement or to any other agreement between Monitor and the Attorney General shall be subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement.

- B. The Parties recognize that in performing Buyer's obligations under the Enforcement Agreement, Buyer, directly and/or through one or more Buyer Affiliates, may furnish, disclose, or disseminate to Monitor information that is proprietary or commercially sensitive to Buyer and/or one or more Buyer Affiliates ("Confidential Information"). In addition, Monitor will receive, obtain, or otherwise come into possession of, and/or will assemble and compile, or will direct or supervise the assembly and compilation of Confidential Information. All such Confidential Information is and shall be and remain the sole and exclusive property of Buyer or each applicable Buyer Affiliate. In the event and to the extent of any conflict between the terms of this Agreement and the terms of the Enforcement Agreement that expressly pertain to Confidential Information, this Agreement shall supersede and control.
- C. For purposes of this Agreement, Confidential Information is information of or concerning or relating to Buyer and/or one or more Buyer Affiliates or their respective operations and business that is both:
- i. not known to the public generally, and
 - ii. would not have been disclosed by Buyer to Monitor but for Buyer's reporting obligations under the Enforcement Agreement, regardless of its form or format or the date of its creation or acquisition, and regardless of whether or not obtained with the knowledge and permission of Buyer and/or of one or more Buyer Affiliates, and regardless of whether or not developed, devised or otherwise created in whole or in part by Bell or Monitor; provided, however, that Confidential Information shall not include any information which (i) was available or in possession of Monitor on a non-confidential basis prior to the time of disclosure to Monitor by Buyer; or (ii) is or becomes available to Monitor on a non-confidential basis by a third party which is not bound by a confidentiality agreement with Buyer or is not otherwise prohibited from transmitting the information to Monitor.

- D. Provided that both criteria specified in subsection 2.C above are satisfied, Confidential Information might include, but not necessarily be limited to: (a) names, addresses and telephone numbers of suppliers and contractors and their respective account, contact, requirements, pricing and utilization information and data; (b) special or unique techniques, procedures and practices used for the operation of healthcare facilities and practices and the care and treatment of patients (including, but not limited to (i) methods, means or practices of obtaining or doing business, including its management, operation and planning, (ii) policies for setting fees and reimbursement for services, and other pricing and rate information, (iii) terms of contracts or agreements to which Buyer and/or one or more Buyer Affiliates is a party, including but not limited to payor participation agreements, and (iv) financial information, tax returns, and proprietary records, data, and information).

- E. Anything in this Agreement to the contrary notwithstanding, Confidential Information shall not include Bell's or Buyer's policies for the treatment of indigent patients or indigent care (as described in the Purchase Agreement).
- F. It is the intent and agreement of the Parties that no Buyer Confidential Information shall be provided to the Attorney General by Buyer or by Monitor. Monitor shall not, under any circumstances or at any time, directly or indirectly, for any reason or purpose whatsoever: (i) reveal, divulge, publish, disclose or otherwise make known to any person or entity other than Buyer or Buyer's authorized personnel any Confidential Information; (ii) make use of any Confidential Information for any purpose other than the monitoring and enforcement of the AG-Enforceable Provisions in strict accordance with the terms of the Enforcement Agreement; (iii) except as permitted by clause (ii) above, make use of any Confidential Information in violation of any restrictions imposed by, or in any manner inconsistent with the ownership or rights of, Buyer and/or the applicable Buyer Affiliate; or (iv) copy all or part of any documents, books, or records containing Confidential Information, other than as necessary in the performance of their respective obligations under the Enforcement Agreement, or with the express permission of Buyer. Upon Publication of the tenth annual Monitor Report, Monitor shall promptly deliver to Buyer, Bell and LifePoint all of their respective Confidential Information it obtained during the performance of its obligations hereunder, and all files, compilations, documents, books, records, electronic media and other materials containing Confidential Information, which are then in Monitor's custody, control, or possession, and shall retain no copies whatsoever. The foregoing obligation to return Confidential Information shall not extend to Confidential Information that is contained in any computer files or documents that have been created as a result of automatic archiving and backup procedures. Any such Confidential Information shall otherwise remain subject to the terms of this Agreement. Notwithstanding the foregoing, (i) Confidential Information may be disclosed to the extent, upon the advice of its counsel, that Monitor is compelled or required by applicable law to disclose such Confidential Information, provided that Monitor shall first notify Buyer in writing to advise Buyer of Monitor's proposed disclosure and permit Buyer to seek a protective order regarding such Confidential Information; (ii) Confidential Information may be disclosed in any litigation or other legal proceeding between Buyer and Monitor; and (iii) Monitor may disclose the Confidential Information to its consultants, attorneys, employees, agents and contractors as may be reasonably necessary to enable Monitor to perform its obligations under this Agreement or the Enforcement Agreement.
- G. Notwithstanding anything contained in this Agreement to the contrary, at least thirty (30) days prior to the date on which Monitor delivers, publishes or otherwise makes known to the Attorney General (any such event being deemed a "Publication") its annual Monitor Report or any other report or regarding Buyer and/or any Buyer Affiliate (any such report being hereinafter referred to as a "Report"), Monitor shall provide to Buyer a complete copy of the entire Report.
- i. No Report or Publication by Monitor shall contain any Confidential Information. Buyer shall have fourteen (14) days after its receipt of the proposed Report in which to review it to determine whether it contains any Confidential Information and to give Monitor written notice of its objection to inclusion of such Confidential Information (a “Confidentiality Objection”).

- ii. If Buyer gives Monitor written notice of a Confidentiality Objection within the aforementioned fourteen-day period and Monitor believes that the information in question is not Confidential Information, then, within three (3) business days after Monitor’s receipt of the Confidentiality Objection, duly authorized representatives of Monitor and Buyer shall confer and attempt in good faith to reach mutual agreement on a Report that does not contain Confidential Information, which agreement shall not be unreasonably withheld.
- iii. If Buyer and Monitor are not able to resolve the dispute within ten (10) business days after Monitor’s receipt of the Confidentiality Objection, then, within ten (10) additional business days, Buyer shall either commence legal proceedings to resolve the Confidentiality Objection or be deemed to have waived the Confidentiality Objection.
- iv. If, by the April 30 due date of the Monitor Report in question, Buyer and Monitor have not resolved the Confidentiality Objection and Buyer has not waived such Confidentiality Objection, then: (a) the portion of the Report at issue in the Confidentiality Objection shall be redacted and shall not be subject to any Publication until the completion of any legal proceedings commenced by Buyer to resolve the Confidentiality Objection, (b) a redacted copy of the Report, including all other portions of the Report, shall be subject to Publication, and (c) Monitor’s redaction and non-production of the portion of the Report at issue in the Confidentiality Objection during the pendency of such legal proceedings shall not be deemed to constitute a breach by Buyer or Monitor of its respective obligations under the Enforcement Agreement.
- v. No Report or Publication by Monitor shall contain any inaccurate information. Buyer shall have fourteen (14) days after its receipt of the proposed Report in which to review it to determine whether it contains any inaccurate information and to request deletion of such inaccurate information. If Buyer believes that the Report contains inaccurate information, it shall notify Monitor of that belief and the basis for it (the “Inaccuracy Objection”) within the aforementioned fourteen-day period. Within three (3) business days after Monitor’s receipt of the Inaccuracy Objection, duly authorized representatives of Monitor and Buyer shall confer and attempt in good faith to reach mutual agreement on a Report that does not contain inaccurate information, which agreement shall not be unreasonably withheld.

- vi. If Buyer and Monitor are not able to resolve the dispute within ten (10) business days after Monitor's receipt of the Inaccuracy Objection, then, within ten (10) additional business days, Buyer shall either commence legal proceedings to resolve the Inaccuracy Objection or be deemed to have waived the Inaccuracy Objection.
 - vii. If, by the April 30 due date of the Monitor Report in question, Buyer and Monitor have not resolved the Inaccuracy Objection and Buyer has not waived such Inaccuracy Objection, then: (a) the portion of the Report at issue in the Inaccuracy Objection shall be redacted and shall not be subject to any Publication until the completion of any legal proceedings commenced by Buyer to resolve the Inaccuracy Objection, (b) a redacted copy of the Report, including all other portions of the Report, shall be subject to Publication, and (c) Monitor's redaction and non-production of the portion of the Report at issue in the Inaccuracy Objection during the pendency of such legal proceedings shall not be deemed to constitute a breach by Buyer or Monitor of its respective obligations under the Enforcement Agreement. In no event shall Monitor be liable for any inaccurate information provided to Monitor by Buyer.
- H. Monitor agrees not to acquire or attempt to acquire possession of, nor to duplicate Confidential Information, whether made available electronically on a limited-access basis through a website of Buyer, Bell, LifePoint, or any of their respective legal counsel or in hard copy for inspection only. Monitor will not attempt to download, "screen print" or otherwise reproduce, or otherwise attempt to acquire possession of, Confidential Information. The foregoing limitation shall not extend to Confidential Information that is contained in any computer files or documents that have been created as a result of automatic archiving and backup procedures. Information previously produced to the Attorney General by Buyer, Bell or LifePoint under an agreement that such information would be kept confidential shall be deemed Confidential Information for purposes of this Agreement without necessity of any other action on the part of Buyer, Bell or LifePoint.
- I. Monitor expressly acknowledges and agrees that any breach of the provisions of this Section 2 will cause irreparable injury to Buyer and/or one or more Buyer Affiliates and that actual damages may be difficult to ascertain, and in any event, will or may be inadequate. Accordingly (and without limiting the availability of legal or equitable (including injunctive) remedies under any other provisions of this Agreement), Monitor agrees that in the event of any such breach or threat thereof, Buyer and/or any Buyer Affiliate shall be entitled, as a matter of course, without necessity of bond, and immediately upon presentation to the court of an executed copy of this Agreement, to an injunction, restraining order, writ of mandamus or other equitable relief from any court of competent jurisdiction, enforcing and restraining any violation or threatened violation of any of provisions of this Section 2 by Monitor and all such other persons as the court shall order, and Monitor hereby expressly and irrevocably consents to the entry of orders and/or writs granting Buyer and/or any Buyer Affiliate such relief. The rights and remedies provided for herein are cumulative and will be in addition to rights and remedies otherwise available to Buyer and/or any Buyer Affiliate provided elsewhere in this Agreement and under any other agreement or applicable law. The injunctive relief provisions of this Section 2 supersede and govern over any conflicting provision of this Agreement.
