Vendco intends to offer financial assistance by sponsoring social equity applicants. We will sponsor a minimum of four (4) social equity participants annually by covering the cost of each applicant's $2,500 MRA application fee. Our team is already working to identify prospective applicants for the first quarter of 2020. Once we have identified such applicant(s) we will ask them to provide written verification of eligibility (letter from Social Equity Program) and then proceed with payment of their fee at the appropriate time.

While financial assistance is needed, time is the most precious commodity of all. The Vendco team intends to donate our time as needed to mentor and assist new companies being operated by social equity applicants in the eligible communities.

We also commit to purchasing cannabis products from growers and processors who are in the Social Equity Program as much as possible. We also commit to utilizing social equity operators for secure transport of our products and to fulfill our testing requirements at Safety Compliance Facilities.
