Consumer Notification of Voluntary Marijuana Product Recall

In the interest of public health and safety, VBJG Mt. Clemens, LLC (AU-P-000368) – in coordination with the Cannabis Regulatory Agency (CRA) – is voluntarily recalling a limited number of marijuana-infused beverages.

A single batch of Armada Cannabis Co. Cannabis Apple Cider (20mg) is being recalled because the products were not compliantly produced and there have been reports of cans swelling and bursting. This is attributable to the lack of a necessary ingredient to ensure shelf stability.

The cans were sold between the dates of 10/11/23 – 11/1/23 and have an expiration date of 01/02/2024.

As these products are not considered shelf-stable and could expand or possibly burst, consumers who have these products in their possession should dispose of them in an outdoor receptacle. Do not return them to the marijuana sales location. The above sales locations must display this recall notice on the sales floor, visible to all consumers, for 30 days from the date of this notice.

Additional Methods of Identifying Recalled Product

Additionally, consumers may identify the recalled product by matching the following information:

- Production date of 10/02/23
- Expiration date of 01/02/24
- Source code (SRC) of 1A40503000373FD000009667

In addition, consumers may also match the Metrc tag numbers affected by this recall (PKG) on the back of the can to the list below. These Metrc tag numbers are listed in numerical order down the first column and then again starting at the top of the second column:
